

TODAY AT THE DOD

The first result of the day is in the Ladies singles where Sara Marie Nicholls beat Caroline Taylor 21-6 to reach the final later today. In the other semi final Ysie White beat Emma Gittings 21-18 to set up a final against Sara.

In the ladies U25 pairs Seren Jones and Lauren Gowen beat Katie Dickinson and Jasmine Staton 22-7 to reach the final where they will play Libby Harris and Olivia Jackson who beat Emily Lawrence and Estee Parry 16-13.

In the ILD pairs final Ian Kelleher and Robert Parker beat Leighton Francis and Cian Rowe 15-8.

A nasty shower has just descended on us here in Llandrindod but we are hoping it will soon blow over.

Glad to report the sun is back out and the rain hasn't caused too much of a problem.

In the PD pairs final Rob Sawyers and Chris Spriggs beat Paul Brown and Robbie Burn 16-6.

In the mens U25 pairs, Jack Breen and Eric Hughes beat Owain Lebreton and Ryan Davies 17-15. They will now play Lewys Lavelle and Jack Mouny who beat Rhys Colwill and Billy Flynn 21-11.

In the O55 Fours, Presteigne beat Machynlleth 22-6 to reach the final where they will meet Llanbradach who beat Harlequins 16-14.

Another shower has descended but again we are hopeful it will blow over. Looking brighter already.

In the VI Pairs final Mathew Thorne and Steffan James beat Julie Thomas and Jonathan Cox 12-9.

In the mens triples Ely Valley have beaten RTB Ebbw Vale 20-7 and in the final will meet Crosskeys who beat Tenby 17-16 in a very tense match.

Over 60 triples, Barry Athletic have beaten Lampeter 22-9 and will play Briton Ferry Steel in the final after they beat Brynhyfryd 25-17.

First result of the second session sees Ysie White of Tenby lift the Ladies singles title after beating Sara Marie Nicholls 21-8.

In the mens U18 singles Jack Rees beat Jack MacKenzie 21-15 and Elijah Minett beat Ethan Williams 21-17. Jack and Elijah will compete in the final a little later.

In the ladies U25 pairs final, Seren Jones and Lauren Gowen have taken the golds with a 24-8 win over Libby Harris and Olivia Jackson who take the silvers.
